

The All Dressage Association invites you to Dinner and Dressage

Date: Wednesday, April 30th, 2008

Time: 6:30p.m.

Place: Vic's Restaurant, 14977 Cleveland, Spring Lake

RSVP: Beth Sneller (ph. 616-893-9373) by Friday, April 25th

The discussion is free.
Please plan to purchase your meal.

We invite you to join R-judge (retired) and instructor Betty Jo Crosby for an evening of dining and discussion. The topics will include the bio-mechanics of horse and rider in the training program and setting and achieving your riding goals.

The group will discuss test movements, diagram exercises, and explore the development of the relationship between horse and rider both on the ground and in the saddle. Please bring writing materials.

This discussion will be great preparation for both riders and auditors for the upcoming spring clinic with Alex Gerding.

Spring ADA clinic with Alex Gerding

Date: May 3rd and 4th (8am-5pm daily)

Location: West Michigan Equestrian Center, Muskegon

Cost: $15 /day for ADA members, $30/day for non-ADA members
(join the ADA at the clinic and save $15 on auditing!)

- No auditor pre-registration required.
- Lunch will be provided.
- Please bring a chair.
- For clinician information see www.alexgerding.com

For more information on the discussion or the clinic, please contact Beth Sneller at (ph. 616-893-9373).