

Northern Michigan's

Tool Box Symposium®

Dressage Lessons

May 15th and 16th, 2010
at the

Bay Harbor Equestrian Club

WHO

Dressage Instructors, Upper Level Riders, 2-3 Level Riders with ambition and all Auditors

- To advance the teaching skills of instructors, the performance skills of dressage riders, and the observation abilities of auditors
- Designed to draw participants from the Midwest dressage community - easy trailer-in, ample parking, great accommodations

WHAT

Fun and stimulating interchange of "Tools" and lessons in an environment of fair play!

- Investigate and learn more about teaching techniques and styles
- Meet your neighbors in our sport — the riders and the trainers/instructors
- The lessons we all want to learn really are simple — sometimes "easy" or "difficult" depends on how they are explained

HOW

Put your "Tools", "Wishes" and "Needs" in the Symposium's interchange Tool Box

- Instructors: Submit TWO LESSONS YOU ARE GOOD AT TEACHING
- Upper Level Riders or Instructors: Submit TWO LESSONS YOU WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE
- 2nd - 3rd level Riders aspiring to move up to 4th level and FEI competitions: List FOUR LESSONS YOU NEED TO LEARN
- Auditors: Lessons and training sessions to increase observation techniques available to all auditing participants

● A bit about the WHY and WHO regarding the development of this Symposium

The Goal of the Tool Box Symposium®: To advance the understanding of teaching — how different styles of learning can be approached — and to encourage through example the idea of embracing National Training Centers across the country.

Karin Offield's www.lingh.nl is the sponsor for this Symposium. Karin was quoted in the September 2009 issue of Dressage Today in an article entitled "Into the Future": "I would designate the best facilities in a region and label them National Training Centers for a two year pilot program and see what can be accomplished". Quoting Karin today: "This Tool Box Symposium is my idea and answer to get this program off the ground. Bay Harbor is achingly beautiful, it has a lot of stabling and trailer space, good arenas and the management wants to promote equestrian education." Karin is a Grand Prix level rider and has happily begun teaching what she has learned over the years. Because she sees her mount Lingh as her greatest professor, she encourages all to bring their "school masters" to this Dressage Lessons Symposium.
